Club Championship Results 2017

The 2017 Club Championships were held on Sunday 29th October, in superb course conditions, and humid warm weather, until the last hour or so of golf, when the showers started.

The Senior Men had a great match, with Damian Walker winning on the 37th hole.

Von Walker was the Senior Women's winner, creating club history once more, as Von and Damian became just the third couple from the Feilding Golf Club to win. Records show that in 1919, Mr & Mrs H.G. Stringer were winners, and in 1953 Pam and David Graham were winners. Our congratulations to Von and Damian.

The Men's Intermediate was won by Bobby Te Mataki, with Ross Pratt the runner up. In the Men's Juniors, Maurice Plimmer was the winner, with Grant Burrell the runner up.

The Women's Intermediate winner was Rebecca Ward, with an awesome round of a nett 64! The runner up was Gillian Martin, not doing too badly with a nett 70! The Junior Women's winner was Rosemary Blunden, and Shirley Frederickson was runner up.

Congratulations to all winners of the day, and to all who played, well done on your achievement of making the finals.

Thanks must also go to the spectators, who make the day so special.

Shand Cup & Sybil Green Salver played in Wellington (from MWG website)

The Manawatu Wanganui teams had mixed results through the 3 teams. The Mens Masters Team came first, the Women's Sybil Green team performed very well to finish 2nd, but the men's senior team finished bottom in the Shand Cup. In the Masters men's team Ross Geary went through with 3 wins from 3, Phil Hooper had 2 wins and a half, and Tony Chettleburg and Rhys Watkins both secured 2 wins. Mike McSherry had 1 win and a half. The team had 4.5 – 1.5 wins over both Hawkes Bay and Taranaki, and a 3 all draw against Wellington. With Manawatu Wanganui and Wellington both finishing with 5 points, Manawatu Wanganui won on the countback of total individual matches won (12 against Wellington's 10.5). Congratulations to the Masters men.

The women's team dropped their first match against Wellington 6.5 – 1.5, but came back with wins against Taranaki and Hawkes Bay to finish a creditable 2nd. The only unbeaten player was Tania Hook playing at number 4, with 2 wins and a half. Brydie Hodge, Tara Raj, Mudra Lakhani and Jill Hall each had 2 wins from 3 matches. Wellington was the winner of the Sybil Green.

The Men's Senior team were without some of the more experienced players. Junior Tatana had to withdraw due to injury. Regan Cording withdrew from rep golf for the remainder of the year, and Greg Shaw and Ewan Westergaard were both unavailable for this event. This meant they had to bring in players that were inexperienced at this level of competition. (Sharon Boxall & Liam Finlayson had a wonderful weekend and were well looked after by Manawatu Wanganui Golf).

Congratulations!

Congratulations Barbara Kingi on meeting a milestone - 90 years young and still golfing!
