

Volunteer of the Month Sponsored by The Gateway Precinct & Rob Lowry

Ann Stewart

Ann has participated in many different sports, and her interest in golf began at the Halcombe Golf Club, where she earned her handicap. Ann has been a member of Feilding Golf Club for over 50 years. Upon retiring, she served on the Ladies Committee, becoming Vice, and then Club Captain.

Coming from a farming and orchardist background gave Ann an interest, and she has enjoyed working at the club, and loves pruning the roses outside the Pro Shop. Owning her own business in Feilding, Ann became involved with the Floristry Industry, and during this time she was on the executive of both Teleflora and NZ Professional Florists Inc., serving as NZ President of both organisations.

In her own words, Ann says 'Over the years I have made many good friends in the golfing world, and so it has been my pleasure to give something back.'

Maadi Plate Winners

The Maadi Plate was presented by H.R.Jones in 1946, and is open to men members of the club, and played on Anzac Day every year. This year it is shared by Richard Morgan, Damian Walker and Terry Morgan. Well done guys.

2018 Women's Premier Challenge

Supreme winners!
The combination of Rangatira Golf Club's Lesley Leary & Kuia Byford were the overall winners of the 2018 Premier Challenge, winning Travel vouchers from 'You Travel'

The 10th Premier Challenge was held on Thursday and Friday 12th and 13th April, once again 120 women travelled to Rangatira Golf Course on the first day.

Our thanks to Rangatira, the Golf Course was, as usual, in great order.

A dinner and prize giving was held at Feilding Golf Course that night. Thanks to Adele, for again putting a superb meal on. The mood was happy and relaxed, as many of the ladies come back year after year. The Clubhouse looked great, decorated with beautiful Ostrich feathers, which gave a very sophisticated air!

Former member Di Lewis, who put this tournament together 10 years ago, was invited to speak, then had the honour of cutting the lovely cake, made by New World, Feilding.

The weather was good both days, with rain luckily holding off until play was finished.

Thanks must surely go to Ladies Club Captain, Joss Gray, her Committee, and Rangatira Golf Club, for all the hard work all put in to make this tournament the success it was.

Also huge thanks to all who worked behind the scenes, in more ways than one, from gardening, cleaning, and so much more.

To Malcolm, Shaun and the staff and volunteers, the course looked superb, as did Rangatira Golf Course. The many comments made by visitors from the top of the North Island to Christchurch, prove that the Tournament is one that Ladies enjoy coming to, year after year.

And lastly but certainly not least, a huge thank you to the Sponsors, who help to make the Tournament. Congratulations to the winners, Lesley and Kuia, who have been playing together for 10 years.

Junior News

The Manawatu/Wanganui Collegiate Final was held at Marton Golf Club.

Feilding High School's Team, Ethan Ward, Liam Magill and Ryan Rooney won the Best Nett for the 3rd year running. Well done boys, a fine achievement.

Remy Early won the Under 15 Division in the Palmerston North Golf Club Tournament. Well done Remy.

Junior coaching will re-commence on Wednesday 2nd May.

2018 NZ Women's Masters

Congratulations to Von Walker on making the team!

Von travelled to Inglewood Golf Club on 6th - 8th April, playing for Manawatu/Wanganui.

The team was 1 - Lisa Herbert (Manawatu), 2 - Von Walker (Feilding), 3 - Caroline Scott (Wanganui), and 4 - Karen Wehipeihana (Palmerston North). Travelling reserve was Lisa Cotton (Pahiatua), and non-travelling reserve was Jill Hall (Rangitikei).

The team played well but were no match for the Waikato team, who won by 6 points, beating players from 13 other Provinces.

Raffle with proceeds to the Feilding Golf Club

Shortly all members will be posted 2 raffle books to sell on behalf of the Feilding Golf Club to assist with club general funds. As one of this year's fundraising activities the Board is hopeful you will all participate, in the spirit of the Club. This is an opportunity for members to sell raffle tickets to family, friends or neighbours to attract money from outside the membership.
