Bill Wright

Bill retired from Commercial Real Estate in Palmerston North four years ago, Bill has been keeping himself very busy assisting at the Golf Club. Residing in Milson, he finds the 9 minute country drive a pleasure and can then be found playing golf or volunteering around the clubhouse and out on the course. Bill's first hands-on was the moving of the 18th green turf to the chipping green. Since then he has been involved with cutting and splitting trees for firewood, clearing the course of debris and general assistance. Most recent was the removal of the 2 gardens under the stairwell's and now he is laying timber for the garden edging's. Bill enjoys the company of the golfers he plays with or against saying he is in it for "the fun". Thank you for all your hard work Bill – there will be plenty more to keep you occupied over the summer!

Working Bee

Thanks to all who turned up and got stuck in, people like you are the Club Gems! At the time of the 'photo shoot' a few souls had already left. Although there was no rain there was a chilly wind, but that didn't stop the smiles of satisfaction of knowing a good job was done! Thanks also to Adele for her kind donation of hot tea and coffee, which was greatly appreciated.

To Vince Tanner for painting the Bar doors and touching up the varnish along the Bar counter, thanks too.

September Golf Gigue

Alex and Jim are trying to get in a quick eighteen holes, but there are two terrible lady golfers in front of them hitting the ball everywhere but where it's supposed to go. Alex comments to Jim, 'Why don't you go over and ask if we can play through?' Jim gets about halfway there, turns and comes back so Alex asks, 'What's wrong?' Jim replies, 'One of them is my wife, and the other is my mistress.' Alex responds, 'That could be a problem. I'll go over and have a word.' He gets about halfway there and he turns and comes back, too. So Jim says, 'What's wrong?' Alex murmurs, 'Small world.'
